The Thanksgiving Table

Vegetables can be used for decoration of the Thanksgiving day dinner table, making an appropriate adornment. The centerpiece can be formed of vegetables piled up in the center of . the table. Carrots, turnips, parsnips, sweet and white potatoes, celery tops, But a red and a green cabbage, can all be used if they are scrubbed clean and wiped dry. Their colors are beautiful, and if they are neatly mounded and then edged with a border of fresh green parsley they will be quite effective.

About the centerpiece candlesticks formed of vegetables can be grouped. Big carrots make good candlesticks. The Cut off the big end to make a solid foundation on which these candlesticks can rest and cut off some of the taper ing end so that the end left will be half an inch bigger in diameter than the candles used. Then scoop out a little cup to hold the caudie.

Cucumbers cut on one side so that they will sit solidly on the table, with a little cup hollowed in each end, can be used for holding two candles each. Turnips, potatoes and parsnips can all

There are poppy crackers on sale that would make appropriate favors to go with these vegetable decorations. They cost about $1.25 a dozen. Three are decorated with they, ears of corn. three with tomerbes, three with primpkins and three with enembers. Each contains a favor.

A big paper turkey that costs about $1.25, filled with candies, might serve as the centerpiece, and at each place could be put small paper turkeys, also filled with candy, which cost from 15 to 25 cents apiece.

There are small fruit boxes sold, filled with candles by some confectioners, that are also attractive favors.

More useful favors can be found in the small silk fruits and vegetables that are sold for prices that range from 25 cents to 81. Carrots and parsnips, apples and pours are included in these printe and acceptable favors.
